Konica Minolta Sponsors Last Great Race on Earth

Anchorage, Alaska – February 22, 2013 – Konica Minolta Business Solutions U.S.A., Inc. (Konica Minolta) today announces its participation as a Lead Dog sponsor of the Alaska's world-famous Iditarod, otherwise known as the "Last Great Race on Earth."

A leader in advanced document management technologies and IT Services, Konica Minolta focuses on complete business solutions, including production print systems, digital presses, multifunctional products (MFPs), managed print services, vertical application solutions and related services and supplies.

Konica Minolta currently has three primary service locations and one satellite location in the state of Alaska. The approximately 40 employees, located in Kodiak, Anchorage, Fairbanks and Kenai, pride themselves on not only providing full service business solutions to print production companies, education institutions, medical facilities and law offices, but also on being active members within their communities.

"The Iditarod is a great way for us to give back to our communities and to Alaska as a whole," says Steve Roussos, Market Vice President, Pacific NW, Konica Minolta Business Solutions U.S.A., Inc. "It is a wonderful event, unique to Alaska, that allows some amazing men, women and their teams to compete. We are very proud to be a part of it."
