

The starting line for the ceremonial start is on 4th Ave. in downtown Anchorage, just near the intersection of 4th Ave. and D. The dogs, mushers, and Iditariders begin their trek right down the middle of 4th Ave. After 3 or 4 blocks there is an awesome right turn down Cordova Ave. This is a great place to view the ceremonial start. The run will continue through Anchorage for 11 miles until they come to a stop at Campbell Airstrip.
