

Musher Banquet Centerpiece Contest

Be a part of the Volunteer Team by creating, making, and sending table decorations to Alaska to be used at the Musher Banquet in Anchorage.

Entry must be to us on/or before Nov. 15th each year.

Winning classrooms will be notified on or before Dec. 20th.

Submission Guidelines:

- Students create table centerpieces to be used at the Musher Drawing Banquet held in Anchorage on the Thursday before the start of the race.
- Develop a concept and create an example -sketch, written or digital image of your classroom's idea.
- Keep in mind shipping, ease of set up, size and theme. Keep it simple!
- Complete entry form below and email to Diane Johnson along with an example of your planned design. (photo, sketch, description, etc.)
- Winning classrooms will be asked to create approximately 25- 50 table decorations, however a smaller number or larger number will work, too.
- Winning classrooms will be responsible for providing all materials needed to complete their design.
- Winning Classrooms are responsible for all packing and shipping costs.
- Table decorations must arrive in Alaska on or before Feb.20th

Mailing info will be sent to the selected classrooms upon selection of classrooms participating.

Winning classrooms will enjoy the thrill of being a part of the Last Great Race on Earth® along with recognition at the mushers banquet by having their creations on the tables.

Iditarod Table Setting Contest Submission Form

School Name

Educator Contact:

Grade:

Postal Address:

Email Address:

Phone Number:

Please attach written description and visual aides to this form and mail to djohnson@iditarod.com