

Ode to a Husky

Husky, oh husky!
So free and strong,
you are there for us training
hard, all year long.

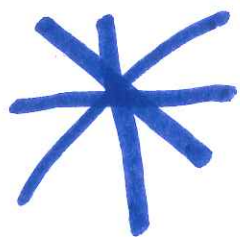

Husky, oh husky!
Without you I would have to use a snow machine to race
the trail.

Husky, oh husky!
Without you, mushers couldn't mush and the snow would turn to slush.

You lead the team to victory,
and the world watches!

Ode to Iditarod

Oh Iditarod
you are the great race

that no one can replace.
my soul would not be complete without you.

Oh Iditarod

without you dogs would have no joy.

without you mushers could not live out their dreams.

The poster is decorated with numerous small hearts in red, pink, and blue, and small blue stars scattered throughout. There are also larger, stylized hearts and stars. A large blue star is on the right side. The background is white with a blue scribbled border at the bottom.

Ode * to * Iditarod

Oh Iditarod!

You put the cherry on my Sundae. Without you it would just melt away. Without you the trail would be lonely and silent. You

You are the great race
and I am your biggest fan!
