

Iditarod[®] EDU

Virtual Fall Conference

Technology in an Ecosystem that Demands Greater Access

Registration fee – $100

Can't attend on these dates? No problem, a digital copy is available for $89.

Friday, October 16

Iditarod EDU Fireside Chat

2 – 4 p.m. Alaska Time

IditaRead digital mapping update: We are almost there!

Husky Talk: podcasts for students.

Iditarod EDU monthly: up-to-date information on a multimedia platform.

EDU quilt gone virtual: a new twist to an old tradition.

K9's are back!: Our K9 reporters hit the trail with new stories to BARK about.

Who's next: Iditarod Teacher on the Trail™ update.

Saturday, October 17

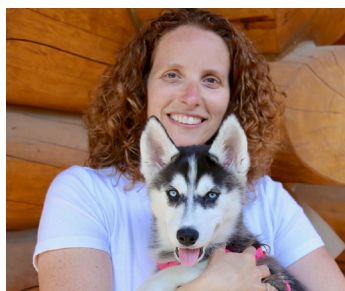

Technology in an Ecosystem That Demands Greater Access

8 a.m. – 12 p.m. Alaska Time

Guest Speakers

Jim Deprez, Ohio
2021 Iditarod Teacher on the Trail
Teaching on purpose.

Kelly Villar, New Hampshire
2020 Iditarod Teacher on the Trail
Explains how to create Idita-lessons on Seesaw software.

Jen Reiter, Maryland
2014 Iditarod Teacher on the Trail
Talks about how mobile technologies can add a new dimension to activating learning opportunities.

Aliy Zirkle, Two Rivers, Alaska
One of Iditarod's leading figures is headed to the classroom! Shares her latest project, Husky Homeroom from SP Kennel.

For more information, contact Jane Holmes at jane.holmes@iditarod.com.

Register for the conference at
<https://iditarod.ejoinme.org/MyEvents/2020VirtualIditarodEduFall%20Conference>