Insider in Alaska Schools

All schools in Alaska can stream Iditarod 2021 Insider coverage for FREE!

How do I sign up?

1. Designate one teacher from your school to manage the Insider School account.
2. Have your designated teacher sign up at <https://iditarod.com/shop/insider-subscription-ak-school-ultimate/>.
3. Have your designated teacher share the account login and password with all the teachers in the school.
4. Enjoy all the Iditarod content for FREE!

What you get!

- All access to Iditarod Insider content for multiple teachers and their students
- Iditarod race videos
- GPS tracking
- IditaRead program access
- Special COVID-19 public health education

Spread the word!

- Iditarod poster included to print and post the login in and password in your class or teacher lounge.
- Email the flyer to Alaska teachers that haven't heard about the program.
- Graphics included to use in school newsletters or social media pages to let parents and students know you will be following the race.

The Iditarod, through Alaska Cares Act funding, is offering this opportunity to promote COVID-19 health and safety awareness to all Alaskan Schools in the state. In partnership with Department of Health and Social Services, Department of Early Education Development, and Alaska Native Health Consortium.
