

Monday, February 28: Make arrangements to arrive on this day so you are rested and ready for non-stop activities and learning.

Tuesday, March 1, 9 a.m. – 4:30 p.m.: Breakfast starts at 8. Workshop sessions led by Iditarod EDU staff, including our current Iditarod Teacher on the Trail, Jim Deprez. Special session from Bryan Bearss, veteran Iditarod musher, now principal in the Anchorage School District.

Wednesday, March 2, 7:45 a.m. – 5 p.m.: Field Trip Day! Ride a chartered bus to Iditarod headquarters to experience pre-race vet checks first hand, have lunch, and then visit Matthew Failor's 17th Dog Kennel at Alaska Husky Adventures to meet the dogs! Lunch provided.

Thursday, March 3, 9 a.m. – 4:30 p.m.: Breakfast starts at 8. Continuing sessions to include the finalists for 2023 Iditarod Teacher on the Trail. This day ends with you attending the 50th Anniversary Musher Banquet in downtown Anchorage. Your ticket is included in your registration fee.

Friday, March 4, 9 a.m. – 12 noon: Speaker series: We are lining up esteemed speakers from all aspects of the race – authors, past mushers, and race personnel. The main conference ends at 12 on Friday.

1:30 – 3:30 p.m.: I.C.E. add-on Become an Iditarod Certified Educator! More information here: Get I.C.E.d